HW6

1) Write a function to mirror an image vertically. That is assume you place a mirror vertically in the middle of the picture. Assume Katie is looking at the mirror from the left.

2) The function copyHalf copied the top half of the picture into the bottom half. Write a new function copyUpHalf that copies the bottom half of the picture into the top.